1 AIM OF THIS MODULE

- 1. develop participants' understanding of the nature and purpose of corporate reporting framework within the international arena. (IASB, FAC,FASB)
- 2. develop a detailed and critical understanding of the basic underlying theories and principles upon which modern international corporate reporting is based and application to financial reporting issues and problems
- 3. facilitate an understanding of the regulatory frameworks which govern corporate reporting and the manner in which it is interpreted and operationalised by practitioners.
- 4. enable participants to analyse and interpret the published financial statements of corporations developed, based on the relevant international accounting standards and financial reporting standards(IAS and IFRS)
- 5. facilitate an appreciation and understanding of comparative approaches to corporate reporting adopted in other countries(US, the EU,IOSCO and others)
- 6. To develop a critical understanding of the construct and context of financial reports and their role in the communication process between companies and those interested in their affairs.
- 7. facilitate consideration of possible future directions for the development of corporate reporting, both in the UK and within the global business and commercial arena.

2 BY ENGAGING SUCCESSFULLY WITH THIS MODULE YOU WILL BE ABLE TO

- 1. Explain the nature and purpose of corporate reporting both within the UK and internationally.
- 2. Demonstrate a critical understanding of the basic underlying theories and principles upon which modern corporate reporting is based.
- 3. Demonstrate an understanding of the regulatory frameworks governing corporate reporting and how they are used by practitioners.
- 4. Demonstrate an ability to analyse and interpret published financial statements.
- 5. critically assess the pressures and influences of the internationalisation of accounting on corporate reporting
- 6. Identify and discuss critically the political and economic contexts and consequences of corporate reporting and relate these to alternative approaches to the regulation of corporate reporting;
- 7. Demonstrate a critical appreciation of the usefulness of corporate reporting found in UK and other countries.
- 8. Formulate and discuss views on possible future directions of corporate reporting, both within the UK and internationally.

3 THESE ARE EXAMPLES OF THE CONTENT OF THE MODULE

4 THESE ARE THE MAIN WAYS YOU WILL BE SUPPORTED IN YOUR LEARNING TO ACHIEVE THESE OUTCOMES

Topics will be introduced and developed in seminars. The situational aspects of the module will be strongly case study based, while theoretical input will be backed by directed reading, followed by seminar discussion. Topical issues will be introduced wherever appropriate, supported by press and journal articles.

5 THESE ARE THE WAYS THAT WILL BE USED TO ENABLE YOU TO DEMONSTRATE YOU HAVE MET THE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Assessment is by way of a piece of written coursework on a corporate reporting topic and a final written examination of two hours duration. The exam will comprise questions relating corporate reporting scenarios and optional questions on related corporate reporting topics.

TABLE A: ASSESSMENT TASK INFORMATION

ASSESSMENT TASK	% weightin g of overall module mark	Duration of task / word count / length of exam	In- module retrieval available ?	Individual task pass mark ONLY IF OVER 40%
Individual Coursework	50	3000 words	No
Examination	50	2hrs

 Complete this column only if an individual task(s) has a pass mark over 40% (NB: individual task pass marks over 40% will require approval as an exemption from Standard Assessment Regulations)

6 THIS IS HOW YOU WILL BE GIVEN FEEDBACK ON YOUR PERFORMANCE

Formative feedback will be provided by the module leader, as required, on an ongoing basis throughout the duration of the module. Written feedback following the submission and assessment of the piece of written coursework will normally be made available by the module leader within three weeks of submission.
