

SHEFFIELD HALLAM UNIVERSITY : POSTGRADUATE CALENDAR 2021/22

APPROVAL: University Leadership Team approved 2 December 2020. Revised March 2021. Revised June 2021

This calendar relates to students following a standard full-time postgraduate academic year for Masters, PgCert and PGDip courses commencing in September. Full-time courses with start dates other than September will follow the same teaching and assessment periods though sequenced over two calendar years.

Courses delivered by distance learning or by block delivery will follow, or take place within, the specified teaching periods.

Part-time courses follow the same teaching periods but the course would not be completed within one calendar year.

The calendar specifies those weeks in Trimester 1 and 2 during which it is expected that the majority of teaching staff will need to be in attendance for teaching and related duties. These dates will not necessarily apply to all teaching staff.

Teaching, supervisory and related duties in Trimester 3 are subject to agreement between academic staff and their line manager and work planner.
